History of the College

The Comte Academy of Art, Music and Dance in Paris, originally established as the School of Fashion Art and Design in 1949, has recently embraced a new era of growth. In 2024, the acclaimed erhu musician and composer Mr. Guo Gan, a Chevalier de l'Ordre de la Littérature et des Arts of France, was appointed as the academy's president. He is the first Chinese musician to hold this position at a European Academy of Fine Arts, marking a significant milestone for the institution.
